

Volunteer Job Descriptions for Student Ministry

Bus Driver: each week we have 3 or more bus loads of students who can only attend our Wednesday night service (exodus) by riding the buses. The job involves driving around town picking up/dropping off students and building a relationship with them. This is a very rewarding position.

Discipler: all of our youth leaders are called to make disciples and build relationships with students so that they will feel comfortable with talking about their lives with the. To positions is taken very seriously as this individual will be guiding students in their personal walks with Christ.

Exodus Concession Stand: This position is to help out by working the concession stand and meeting great kids every Wednesday night from 6pm - 6:30 pm

Exodus Greeters: Greet students as they come through our doors every Wednesday night from 6 pm -6:30 pm. If you have a smile then we could use you. The greeters assist with checking each student into our computer check-in stations as well as introduce visitors to students their own age.

Special Event Volunteers:

Disciple Now- Each year we need adult or college leaders for different areas of this event.

-Food (breakfast, lunch, and dinners): Help prepare and serve food to students.

-Transportation: available to drive a group of students to and from weekend events.

-Host Homes: Hosting a group is a rewarding way to be involved in student ministry. These individuals open up their home for the students and their leaders to stay in during our weekend retreat.

-Leaders: Be able to keep up with the fast-paced weekend and guide the students in discussion about Christ.

-Prayer partners: Pray for the students and their personal experience with Christ as they are at the weekend retreat.

Tech Team: If you love to work with computers, lights, and computers we could use you. Join us Wednesday and Sunday to help operate our Tech Booth. Experienced users will be used as mentors for younger teenagers.

Worship Team: We are always looking for skilled musicians to help lead our students in worship on Wednesday nights from 6:30-8:00. Worship team members are leaders on the stage as well as off. We ask all band members to be building relationships with students as well as being an example of Christ-like living.

ZoN Leader: Be involved in the most rewarding volunteer position available. Teach small groups on Sunday mornings, host monthly group events, put together ZoN parties, calling and writing letters to students, being apart of teenagers lives, and leading them on a deeper walk with Christ.
